Dear Graduates,

This June marks an important turning point in your life. For some this will be the end of a difficult part of your lives, while for others it has been the best days of your young lives. However, whichever path you took to arrive at this most significant milestone, I hope that we have equipped you with the tools you'll need to succeed in all your future endeavors.

Now, as you leave the warmth and care of this honored institution of learning in search of success, I ask you to strive to find your particular path, not the one that some person wished for you, rather the one your knowledge and potential can take you to. Whatever your particular path may be now or later, trust yourself and be confident that you have the skills to get there. Believe in yourself, as we believe in you. Success is yours to be had.

Finally, on behalf of the alumni, staff, and your fellow students of The English High School, I would like to congratulate you for reaching this monumental milestone and wish you the best in all your future endeavors. As you leave, I ask you, men and women of The English High School, to go with pride and honor and always strive for achievement.

Good luck, and may God bless you.

LEAD TEACHER

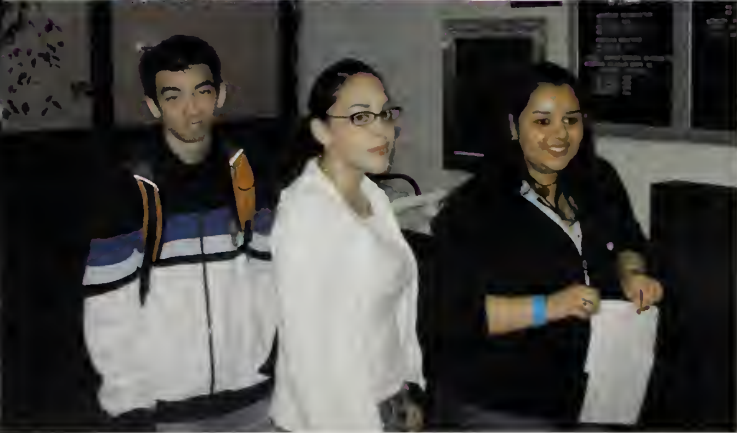

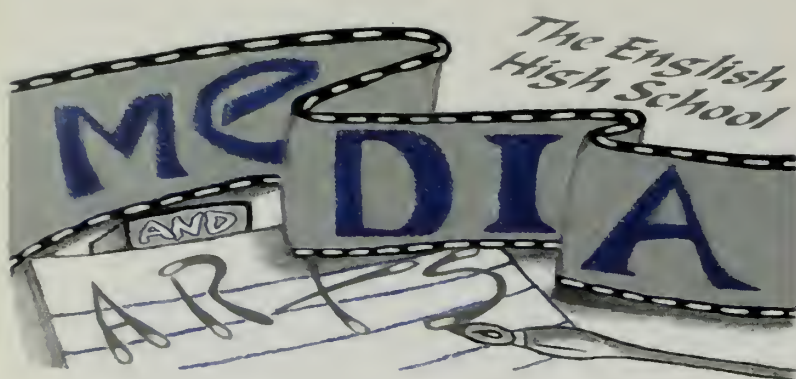

ASSISTANT HEADMASTER

To the Class of 2006,

The Media & Arts Community extends its best wishes for a rewarding future. You are graduating from the oldest public high school in America, and we know that you will be successful. Throughout your four years of high school, you met many people. These people that you met sometimes remained as dominant figures in your life, and others were only there for a short while. Whichever case it was, every person that you encountered has contributed to you and the person that you have become. This contribution may be very significant, but sometimes you don't realize it until years afterward. Now, as you graduate and go your separate ways, try to remember the people who have impacted your life. Hopefully you will encounter many people and make a difference in their lives. What kind of impact will you make? Only you can decide! Congratulations once again from your Media and Arts family of The English High School.

COUNSELOR

ASSISTANT HEADMASTER

Dear Class of 2006,

Your senior year was unforgettable! You became experts in multi-tasking. You became successfully more adept in juggling schoolwork, after-school jobs, authority, family, friends, romantic relationships, independence, and the world. You have achieved this while using your cell phones, Blackberries, Gameboys, iPods, PSP's, laptops, the Internet, XBoxes, and, of course, your calculators. However, in your lives you will be faced with many situations that will demand your full attention. In these instances you cannot multitask. Rather, you have to be patient and reflective. Now that you graduated, take time to think long and hard. Take time to focus, put all your gadgets away. Sometimes they are useless. Meditate ! Put your infinite mind and resonant heart to work. Your community and the world await you. We all need your idealism, enthusiasm, and commitment.

E.H.S. 2005 - 2006 FOOTBALL

Our season started with three wins in our first four games. On our fifth game we lost a very exciting 32 - 27 game to Madison Park. We finished the season losing several very close games, and our fortunes could have gone in a different direction with a reversal of a handful of plays. INCHES make the difference in the game of FOOTBALL! We were led by our senior captains Carlos Restrepo and Joseph Johnson with additional contributions from James Bruce, Phillip Jackson, Wilson Lopes, Edward Melara, Dashawn Johnson, Mykel Powell, Duwayne Malcolm, Anthony McLeod, Steven Comma, Kyle Walker, Dana Rogers and Errin Coren.

Coach Parker Statement!!

"In the final analysis, we were champions. We gave all we had to give - and although in the final results, we lost more than we wanted to, we gave everything we had to give. Next challenge - Life!" Good luck, Coach Parker

Cheerleading 2006

In the beginning of the cheerleading season we started out strong with a grand total of fifteen willing cheerleaders that were willing to scream out the words: "THE BIG E GOT THAT SPIRIT." At the end of the season we went from fifteen courageous girls to not fourteen, thirteen, or twelve but eight. The eight remaining cheerleaders have witnessed all of the Big E's heart-warming victories and frustrated losses. We've also been through various conditions this season as well. We've cheered with the hot sun shining on our faces. The cold drops of rain falling from the cloudy sky. The cold briskly wind blowing up our blue-on-blue EHS cheerleading skirts. Oh yeah, how can I forget the slushy and icy cold snow freezing up our bodies from the Thanksgiving game. Then later throughout the game the sun finally decided to come out and turn that day into the most exciting game I've ever cheered. We've been through the stress of pep-rally together as one. All eight of us were terrified to perform in front of the school, but transformed into loving it. We've also been great ambassadors for The English High too. The cheerleaders helped with every school function this year including open house, parent/teacher night, and concession stands for the basketball games. Yeah, we've been through a lot for being cheerleaders and I am proud of all of us. I love all of the brilliant young ladies on the EHS cheerleading squad. You are like my family ... well my second family. Y'all are my sisters forever!

Boy's Soccer

The 2005 English High Boys Soccer Team overcame a great deal of adversity this season. Due to poor academic performance and injury, several key players were unable to complete. The burden fell on a small but determined group of young athletes who gave it their all in every game. For most of the season, each player was expected to play the entire game because of the lack of substitutes. This was extremely difficult, but under the guidance of two outstanding senior players, Klenton Tomori and Ibrahim Khonteh, the team played well and earned the respect of our opponents. Although we will miss the contributions of these two key players, the future of the program is bright. With many young and talented new players, 2006 will prove to be a break out year for English High Boys Soccer.

The English High girl's basketball season was a very successful one. The team finished in second place in the Boston South Division with an impressive 9-3 division record. The second place finish qualified the team for the city championships. The girl's played a strong game against a good Charlestown team but lost a close game to end their season. The balance of the team's schedule was filled with some very tough competition in their division games.

The team was led by four-year starters LaRay Brison and Shanika Bridges-King. Strong contributions were made by seniors Darlene Biddy, Patrice Shepherd, Jessica Gilmore, and Regina Simpson-Hobbs; all of whom played varsity for four years. Senior Deja Wilson also saw a great deal of playing time. The senior laden team could not have achieved its success without the strong play of junior Samantha Travis-Mills and sophomore Sasha Sanders.

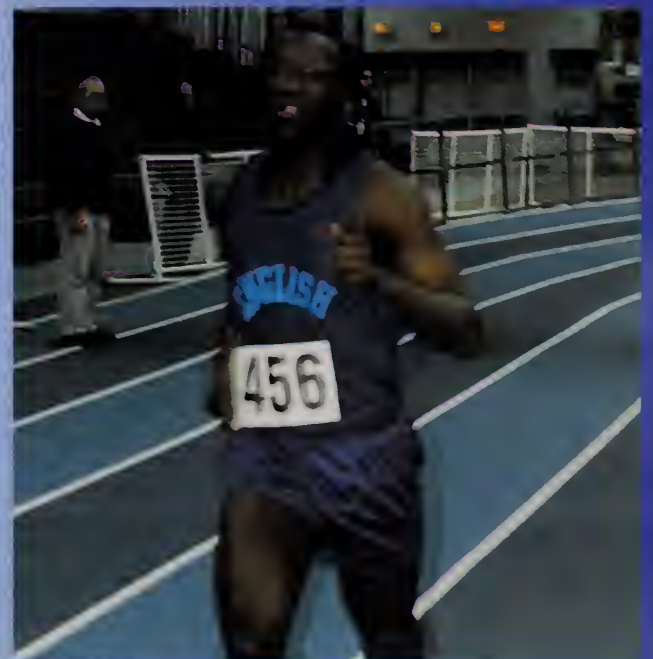

The 2005-2006 Indoor Track Team was laden with talent, determination and drive. Throughout the season, our boys and girls dominated the sprints and middle distances. According to the head coach, Ryan Rud, this was one of the hardest working and talented squad he's seen in twelve years of coaching: "The hard work and effort really paid off for these guys and girls. They were really willing to go the extra mile. Literally." Anya Francis and Haja Fofana, two extremely quick and dominant runners who qualified for the state meet, led the girls several victories during the season but were unable to match the point totals of perennial powerhouses Madison Park and O'bryant. Senior Reuben Roddriguez, whose work ethic and talent served as an inspiration to the entire team, qualified for the state meet and continued to turn in personal records at each meet. Tony Tucker also qualified for the state meet and continued his ascendance to the top of the sprinting world. Next year we will be looking forward to building on our successes as we hope to challenge our rivals for the title once again.

The English Blue and Blue Baseball Team was undefeated this season as it won all eighteen of its games during the regular season and captured the City League Title in the process. The team had a stunning come from behind 14-13 victory over Brighton H.S. on the last day of the season on Memorial Day in front of a large enthusiastic crowd. After being behind 9-0 after just an inning and a half, the team made a monumental comeback to win the game by scoring three runs in its last at bat to pull out the stunning victory.

The game was for the League Championship as Brighton's team had not lost in City League games until it lost to English twice during the season - they too would have had an undefeated record if not for the Blue and Blue.

Other highlights during the season was the defeating of rival Madison Park by scores of 9-7 and 6-1 in its winning streak. Another big victory in the rain soaked season was an impressive 11-4 victory over Latin Academy which only had lost to Brighton H.S. in city play before being beaten by the Blue and Blue.

The team this year was led by senior Cruz Villar who lead the team in batting average with an average of .470. Ruben Rodriguez hit a solid .388 and junior Roberto Zapata who hit .407. The other solid contributors to this year's team was shortstop and lead off hitter Yearis Sanquintin who lead the team in stolen bases and runs scored. Nelfi Zapata stepped in very nicely as a freshman catcher who played with much more confidence and poise than one would expect from a freshman. Some of the other key players to the squad were City League Pitching Leader Roberto Zapata who had a perfect 6-0 record with 65 strikeouts in 53 innings. Seniors Oliver Zapata, Odalis Polanco, and Blas Duran made major contributions as well as underclassmen pitcher and centerfielder Starling Arias, Juniors Runel LaChapell, Luis LaraTejeda, Danny Villar, and sophomore Yeuriz Montero.

Unfortunately, all good things must come to an end and that includes an eighteen game winning streak as the baseball team lost to Chelmsford H.S. by a score of 4-7 in the state tournament - in a strange game that was played in two parts. The first part of the game was played on Friday, June 2nd but was halted by rain after four and a half innings with the score tied at three. Earlier in the day the school held an enthusiastic pep rally to honor the team and cheer it on for its upcoming tournament game. When play resumed again on the following Monday, June 5th, Chelmsford H.S. played just a little bit better than our team and beat the Blue and Blue by a score of 4-7.

This 2006 Baseball season also brought to a close the coaching career of Coach John Rooney as he added a fourth City League Title this year to end his career on a high note as he is retiring after 34 years of teaching and coaching. Coach Rooney also was chosen by the Boston Globe Newspaper as its Division 1 Baseball Coach of the Year, a very prestigious award. We wish him well in his retirement.

Team Honduras 2006

In 1998, Hurricane Mitch devastated Honduras, leaving thousands of people homeless. Eight years later, many are still in need of homes and much of the country remains impoverished. Thanks to the generous support of community members and the faculty of The English High School each student raised a total of $500.00 to cover all expenses in Honduras. This year we had a joint trip with students and teachers from International High School. We were able to nearly complete a house and renovate a school. It was an unforgettable, life-changing experience.

Dance

Dance I, Dance II, and High School Dance Performance, which was a course offered for the very first time at English High School, emerged together to form Narratives, a winter concert. The culmination of their training under the direction and choreography from Ms. Erica Drew, students performed in a variety of styles, in full costumes, and to diverse musical accompaniment. Additionally, student choreography was presented to an enthusiastic audience. Dance students also had the opportunity to perform in formal showcases throughout the year and with other schools in an exchange/sharing program.
